Seasides

Year 3/4
Summer Term 2 2011

Over the next few weeks, your child will be working on the topic of Seasides.

They will be taking part in a series of exciting activities:

- Finding out about the locations and types of British beaches
- Finding out about the locations and types of World beaches
- Tracing the tradition of British seaside holidays and looking at the changes across the decades
- Designing and making our own sandcastles, windbreaks, deckchairs, sunhats, sunglasses and sand art
- Writing scripts for and making our own 'Punch and Judy' style puppets and shows
- Investigating how seashores are formed
- Investigating seaside habitats

Your child needs your help and involvement!
Please get involved by:

- Taking your child to the library & get books and resources about the topic
- Helping your child to use the internet to find out about traditional British seaside holidays and seaside habitats
- Find photographs, postcards and souvenirs of family seaside holidays that your child can bring in to school

What does your child know about the seaside?

Before the Topic...

After the Topic...

Sit down with your child and help them record what they know about the topics, BEFORE and then AFTER they have learnt about it at school.

What else is happening?

Religious Education

Most of our teaching of religious education takes place in separate 'mini-topics'. This half-term, your child will be learning about 'Becoming a grown-up'.

SEAL Time

Each half-term, we focus on a particular aspect of Social & Emotional Aspects of Learning (S.E.A.L). This half-term, we will be looking at the theme of Changes.

Homework

Please support your child by making sure that they read on a daily basis and be sure to update their reading record for them.
